1. Early in May 1948, the Czechoslovak Army began large-scale transfers of its medical supplies stored in Bohemia to supply dumps in Slovakia. The largest of the Slovak dumps is at Liptovsky, Siaty Mikulas (Q50/D19). Another large dump is being established at Kosice (R49/E34).
2. Aeronautical equipment previously stored at Pardubice (O51/M79) has been transferred similarly to Slovakia. The most important aircraft equipment dump in Slovakia is said to be located at Presov (R49/E37).
